

History/Michigan Trivia

“A treasure trove of unique and surprising facts about Michigan...you won't be able to put it down.”

—PAUL ROZYCKI, professor of political science, Mott Community College

“Great job on a fun book. I can't wait to start using it on my morning show!”

—JOHNNY BURKE, morning personality at 96 WHNN

“A delightful compendium of the who, what, when, where, and why of Michigan's historical trivia.”

—GREG HAVRILCSAK, lecturer in history, University of Michigan-Flint

“Fun, fascinating...and educational...and I am sure some of this will wind up in a song or two!”

—DAVID TAMULEVICH, singer, songwriter, Mustard's Retreat.

QUESTIONS TO TEST YOUR KNOWLEDGE AND PIQUE YOUR INTEREST:

Who was Leslie King Jr., and why is he famous?

What was the smallest crowd to pay to see a Detroit Tigers baseball game?

Where was the first known Christmas celebrated in Michigan?

When did it become illegal to shoot cats in Michigan?

Why do some believe that room 401 at Detroit's Grace Hospital is haunted?

How far is the Mackinac Bridge designed to sway?

Michael J. Thorp is a long time television news anchor and radio personality. He is the creator, host, and writer of the Genesee County Park's "Huckleberry Radio Hour," an Emmy award-winning live radio variety show. Thorp's history degree from the University of Michigan-Flint along with his reporter's curiosity have delivered a surprising collection of stories about people, events, and places in and around the Great Lakes State.

SouThorp Publishing
Flint, Michigan
© 2010 Michael J. Thorp

$16.95

The Great, Great Lakes Trivia Test
Michael J. Thorp

SouThorp Publishing

The Great, Great Lakes Trivia Test

The Who, What, Where, When, Why and How of Michigan

Michael J. Thorp