

Who was Leslie King Jr., and why is he famous?

What was the smallest crowd to pay to see a Detroit Tigers baseball game?

Where was the first known Christmas celebrated in Michigan?

When did it become illegal to shoot cats in Michigan?

Why do some believe that room 401 at Detroit's Grace Hospital is haunted?

How far is the Mackinac Bridge designed to sway?

Michael J. Thorp is a long time television news anchor, reporter and radio personality.

He is a storyteller.

In "The Great, Great Lakes Trivia Test," he tells hundreds of fascinating stories by answering 6 questions...

Who? What? Where? When? Why? & How?

Who were Michigan's "Shanty Boys?"

What was the first law passed by a Michigan legislature?

When was the first earthquake recorded in Michigan?

Each question is a story about the people, places, things, and events in Great Lakes lore.

Take the test... see how much you really know!